PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Nau mai, hoki mai — James Dawson

We are pleased to announce the appointment of James Dawson as Principal of Clendon Park School, commencing in 2027.

James returns with a strong connection to our Clendon Park community, along with a genuine passion and love for our school and its people. We look forward to working alongside him to support our tamariki, staff and whānau.

A formal welcome will be held for Mr Dawson when he takes up his role as Principal in 2027. Further details will be shared with our school community in due course.

Nau mai, hoki mai, James!

🎙️ Podcast Programme – Term 4 🎙️

We are very lucky and excited to be running our Podcast Programme this term with the wonderful Queen Shirl'e! 🌟

Our students are being given a fantastic opportunity to develop their confidence, communication skills and creativity while learning all about the world of podcasting.

We are looking forward to seeing our students get involved, build their skills and grow in confidence throughout the programme.

A huge thank you to Queen Shirl'e for your support, time and dedication, and for the amazing mahi you are doing with our students. It is truly appreciated! 💛💙
